

About The Red Bee Group

We chose a name as unique as the combination of skills and talents of our consultants. Bees are essential and symbolize community, productivity, efficiency, and personal power. Red symbolizes passion for our work and a bias toward action.

Our Vision

As a woman-owned consulting firm, we leverage our diverse skills and backgrounds to help leaders develop unique strategies for growth, team engagement and effective risk management with diversity, equity and inclusion at the core. Connecting our work with your multi-year business strategies, we develop sustainable, practical, and repeatable approaches to shift culture and help meet the needs of clients. We recognize that no two organizations are alike, so we listen to your goals and objectives to customize an approach to drive results.

The Red Bee Group offers a broad set of perspectives and skills. We approach challenges and opportunities from a 360-degree perspective, combining law firm and law department capabilities and insights, backed by research and data analytics.

Our solutions are practical and tailored to your needs

Our approach is flexible, responsive, forward-looking, inclusive, multidisciplinary, data-driven, and results-focused. Our results are impactful, repeatable, measurable, and sustainable. We give back a portion of our profits and time to non-profit organizations that support diversity and inclusion initiatives.
